Letter From the President

Dear Lettermen,

Let's give a special thanks to our former letterman and Athletic Director Damon Evans for updating our Lettermen's Club at the stadium. Coach Richt continues to make all of us proud of the Red and Black and we wish the team continued success this fall. The 10th Annual Senior Gala will be held at the Classic Center in Athens on Friday, December 7, 2007 (black tie-optional). They will feature a special tribute to our decades of history and heritage and former captains will speak. 2007 has been and continues to be a very successful year for your Lettermen's Club. A big thank you for all your financial support and all of your hard work on our activities throughout the year. Happy Holiday Season to you and your families.

Go Bulldogs!

Featured Letterman

Jody D. Tanner

1981-82-83

This summer has been a busy one for the Tanner family. On June 14, 2007, Jody's family bought Bulldogs Sporting Goods in Athens, GA. He has had a twenty plus career in corporate sporting goods and "felt the entrepreneurial spirit tugging at me." He has plans to continue the current retail business but to also extend his service to schools and the recreation market. The staff at Bulldog Sporting Goods has over 70 years of experience in this business. Jody says that "Bulldog Sporting Goods will be the "hometown" sporting goods store to UGA fans nationwide and team sport experts to all of Northeast Georgia."

Jody has been married to the former Debbie Dressel of Sandy Springs for over 21 years. They have three children. Clay (14) is a freshman at North Oconee HS where he is on the swim team and he also shoots competitively. Tori (12) is a 7th grader at Malcom Bridge Middle School and she enjoys club swimming. Ivey (10) is a 5th grader at Malcom Bridge Elementary School and is a dance queen who performs at the Oconee Youth School of Performance. The Tanners are very active as boosters of school athletics in Clarke and Oconee County. Jody films games for North Oconee High School. He is also a member of the Athens Touchdown Club. The Tanner family is also very involved members of the Grace Fellowship Church in Bogart, GA. When Jody does have some time to spare, he loves to be on the water or hiking and hunting with his son. He also enjoys traveling with his family and seeing musicals with his girls.

Jody shares some of his best memories of his days at UGA.

- *Having Mack Guest as his academic advisor his freshman year!
- *Life in McWhorter!
- *Coopers on Friday afternoon!
- *Being part of 3 SEC Championship teams!
- *Beating Texas in the 1984 Cotton Bowl!
- *Friday nights in the fall with the other football managers!
- *Winning the National Championship in 1980!
- *Road Trips!

The Georgia Football Lettermen's Club gives Jody an ongoing connection to "an awesome group of people with whom I share a common past." The Lettermen's Club has also helped him make many valuable business connections through the years. As we look to the future, Jody states that we should continue to attract recent lettermen to the club and to offer additional events so that lettermen can stay involved.

Jody also wanted to share his appreciation to Coach Dooley. Jody states, "As Coach Dooley was coach and mentor to so many of us, we should be sure we take a moment to say thanks to him! Coach Dooley has influenced me in innumerable ways! There is no aspect of my personal or business life that Coach Dooley has not had some impact on! 'Thanks Coach' from this former manager."

1976: Matt Robinson had kidney surgery on October 4th, having had 30% of his left kidney removed due to a renal cell carcinoma growth. The prognosis is that all went better than expected and there is less than a 2% chance of reoccurrence and he is recovering very quickly.

His mortgage company HomeTeam Equity, LLC (www.hometeamequity.com) along with its partners, has employed 5 prominent retired athletes into their marketing department, two of which are Kevin Butler and Billy Kratzert from UGA. The others include Davey Johnson (Orioles, Mets, US Olympic Baseball Team), Bill Bates (Dallas Cowboys) and Brian Mogg (Prominent PGA Tour Instructor). They are presently expanding their mortgage presence through acquiring mortgage brokerage and lending groups around the country; and they are coming to Atlanta and Athens very soon. Their creation of the strongest, employee owned, mortgage platform in the industry is quite unique; and becomes even stronger coupled with their athlete lead source program. The combination seems to be unbeatable especially in today's volatile market. If there are any candidates that would like to review their program, please call Matt at 904-262-5664.

Travis Jones Football Fundamentals Youth Camp

The second annual Travis Jones Football Fundamentals Youth Camp was a free, two-day football camp offered to Middle GA area youth between the ages of 8 and 15. It was held at Henderson Stadium on June 29th & 30th, servicing over 195 participants. The camp was led by Travis Jones, Outside Linebacker / Defensive Ends Coach for the Miami Dolphins, along with current and former NFL players, Macon area high school coaches, and University of Georgia Football Alumni. The vision for the camp is to provide a safe and structured learning environment for Macon area aspiring athletes. It was an outstanding chance for them to develop and showcase their talents, and just as importantly, build confidence and grow in the life skills sessions as well. The camp is the only football camp in the Macon area with real techniques taught by a current NFL football Coach that is free of charge to participants.

Statement from Travis Jones on camp:

“My vision for the camp is to provide a safe and structured learning environment for young aspiring athletes, where athletic as well as personal confidence can be developed, enhanced, and transferred into daily life skills. We want to instill in these youngsters personal accountability, persistence, and perseverance that will enrich their lives and serve as a building block for achievement both on and off the field.

As a former player, I know the significance of having had a constructive outlet on which to focus my energy, but more importantly having had something positive to be passionate about. That passion, coupled with opportunity and good ole’ fashioned hard work is what I believe is the key to success. My vision is to provide a place for these young athletes to start building confidence, passion, and tenacity today that will catapult them into self-assured, responsible, and successful team players in the future, no matter what professional path they choose in life.”

More info:

The camp serviced 195 kids throughout both days. The camp will be held annually in the Macon area at the end of June. Further information will be available prior to the event next year.

Mack Guest Named 2007 Hartman Award Recipient

Mack H. Guest III, a former Georgia football captain and the current president of LAD Truck Lines Inc., has been named the 2007 recipient of the Bill Hartman Award, one of the highest honors given to a former UGA student-athlete.

Named for the late Bill Hartman, Georgia's long-time kicking coach and chairman of the Georgia Student Educational Fund, the Hartman Award has been given annually since 1992 and recognizes former Georgia student-athletes who have demonstrated excellence in their profession and/or in service to others by 20 or more years of superior performance after graduation. Only former varsity athletes who have received a baccalaureate degree from Georgia can be considered for the award.

"Mack epitomizes everything Coach Hartman stood for - loyalty and support of the University of Georgia and the Bulldogs," Director of Athletics Damon Evans said. "And, like Coach Hartman, Mack has given so much back to his school and his team."

Guest will be presented with the award at the Georgia-Auburn football game on Nov. 10.

"Coach Hartman was someone I really respected, so it's a tremendous honor to win an award that is named for him," Guest said. "He left such a great legacy. When he talked, everyone listened. His dedication and discipline and work ethic were inspirational to all of us, and he was such a loyal Bulldog. This means so much to me."

Guest, a native of Macon and a graduate of Central High, played on the offensive line for the Bulldogs from 1976-78. He was a member of the 1976 team that went 10-2 and won the Southeastern Conference title and he was the offensive captain for the 1978 "Wonder Dogs" team that went 9-2-1. He also earned All-SEC honors in 1978.

Guest has been in the transportation business since 1982. LAD Truck Lines Inc. in Watkinsville is a full-service transportation and logistics provider specializing in poultry, frozen foods, dry freight and flatbed as well as warehousing and distribution services.

Guest is the president of both the Georgia Lettermen Education Foundation and the UGA Football Lettermen's Club as well as a member of the UGA Athletic Association Board of Directors. He also previously was the president of Athens Touchdown Club.

Guest has served the Athens community in several ways, including leadership roles with the Athens and Oconee County Rotary Clubs, the Athens-Clarke and Oconee County Chambers of Commerce, the Athens First Bank and Trust Advisory Board, the St. Mary's Hospital Foundation and the United Way.

Guest and his wife, the former Camilla Morris, have three children, Mack IV (Dutch), Laura and Amanda. Guest's father, Mack Jr., his brothers, Judson and David, and his sister, June, also all earned degrees from Georgia.

"Anyone who has been successful in life and business has had strong support," Guest said. "I have been fortunate to have a great family and excellent high school and college coaches. They helped me learn that hard work, fundamentals and discipline are the keys to success."

Previous Hartman Award winners include former NFL quarterback Fran Tarkenton (1992); Atlanta Olympic Committee CEO Billy Payne (1992); former Gov. Carl Sanders (1993); Atlanta developer Tom Cousins (1993); legendary former tennis coach Dan Magill (1994); former high school coach Billy Henderson (1995); former Lt. Gov. Pierre Howard (1996); noted amateur golfer Jimmy Gabrielsen (1997); physician Dr. Andy Roddenbery (1998); Athens businessman Hilton Young Jr. (1999); Harvard University Department of Dermatology Chief of Staff Dr. Becky Birchmore Campen (2000); vascular surgeon Dr. Thomas Lawhorne (2001); endoscopic laser surgeon Dr. Thomas Lyons (2002); neurosurgeon and former team physician Dr. Robert E. Dicks III (2003); Atlanta businessman William Young (2004); longtime juvenile court judge, the Hon. Aaron Cohn (2005); and housing developer Keith McSwain (2006).

2007 “Ole Faithful Dawg” Award

Coach Dick Copas

The Georgia Football Lettermen’s Club is pleased to announce that this year Coach Dick Copas of Athens, GA received the 2007 Ole Faithful Dawg Award. The presentation took place on September 15, 2007 at halftime of the UGA vs. Western Carolina football game. The Ole Faithful Dawg Award is given by the Georgia Football Lettermen’s Club to an individual who is not a football letterman but who has been a loyal and dedicated supporter of the Bulldog football team.

Athletics have always played an important role in Coach Dick Copas’ life. While in high school in Commerce, GA, he was a member of the football, basketball, and baseball teams and was named All State center-linebacker in 1951. After graduation, Coach Copas served in the US Navy Submarine Service until 1956. He then attended Auburn University on the GI Bill where he worked as a student trainer. After graduation, he continued to work at Auburn University as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for football and basketball. In 1963 Coach Copas joined Coach Joel Eaves and Coach Vince Dooley in coming to the University of Georgia where he became the Head Athletic Trainer. He held this title for two years. While he continued to serve the football staff, he was also the Academic Counselor for athletes, off-field disciplinarian for all sports, and was the first director of McWhorter Hall. Then in 1971, his responsibilities grew when he was named Head Golf Coach, a position that he held for 26 years. During his tenure, the golf team won the SEC Championship seven times and finished in second place in the NCAA National Golf Championship. He was named SEC Coach of the Year seven times and the NCAA Coach of the Year in 1978. In 1993, Coach Copas was inducted into the Golf Coaches Association of America Coaches Hall of Fame. The University of Georgia Athletic Association annually presents an award in his honor for the most valuable player in golf. In addition, the University of Georgia Athletic Association established the Dick Copas Leadership Award in 1999 to be presented annually to an outstanding male student-athlete. In 2006, Coach Copas was inducted into the University of Georgia Circle of Honor.

Coach Dick Copas married the former Ernestine Moody of Albany, GA in 1954. They have two daughters, Kathy Copas Thrasher and Judi Copas Butler. Kathy and her husband, Fred, reside in Arnoldsville and have two daughters, Katie and Kristy. Judi and her husband, Dennis, reside in Fortson and have two sons, Stewart and Matthew.

Coach Copas sited that his devotion to the Georgia Bulldogs began in 1963 when he joined the staff. He stated, “For 36 years, I shared in the joys of victory and the disappointment of defeat with the athletic teams. Working so closely with the players gave me the opportunity to develop personal relationships with them and to be available for them as needed.” Some of his fondest memories of Georgia football are: arriving at Georgia as a part of a new staff, the 1980 National Championship, receiving the game ball after the 1964 victory over the Florida Gators, and the opportunity to work with the athletes for so many years.

Surprised was Coach Copas’ reaction upon being notified that he would receive the 2007 Ole Faithful Dawg Award. He stated that it is an honor to be selected by athletes whom he has known and worked along side. He said that the Georgia Football Lettermen have been faithful to their teams and loyal to the University of Georgia. Coach Copas remarked, “For them to consider me an Ole Faithful Dawg is high praise.” On behalf of the Georgia Football Lettermen’s Club, congratulations Coach Dick Copas on becoming our 2007 Ole Faithful Dawg.

2007 Campaign Update

We need your help in order to reach our goal of $30,000 for the 2007 Campaign. We have had 193 donors to our annual campaign who have given a total of $25,240.00. This is slightly down from last year. Our goal is still obtainable! If you have not contributed, it is not too late. Just make your check payable to the Georgia Football Lettermen's Club and mail to 1070 Lake Wellbrook Drive, Athens, GA 30606. Please remember that when you contribute $100.00 or more to the Georgia Football Lettermen's Club, you will automatically receive a 200 point credit towards the William C. Hartman Jr. Fund (former GEEF) for your 2008 ticket priority. Thank you to all of the lettermen who have already given. Your names are listed below:
